Q	Sample Answers	Action
1.	Their mother sent them to look for wood for the fire.
2.	The grass is described in this way to demonstrate how soft and wet the ground below is. It also lets the reader know that it is not easy to walk through after the rain.
3.	(i) A puppy who insists on coming along for the journey (ii) That it is difficult to walk through, that it is taking a long time, and that the characters are not enjoying themselves. I know this because the puppy is described as a nuisance, rather than something enjoyable.
4.	I think Grace says this sarcastically in order to express the complete opposite. I don't think she is having a good time and she says this in order to let Madeleine know that she is unhappy about the situation they are in.
5.	'pouted' :- To purse your lips in reaction to another person's action or comment. In this case, it is to show understanding. 'stagger' :- To walk slowly and unstably because of uneven terrain or because something is affecting your balance, e.g. something heavy. 'zigzagging' :- Turning sharply, and repeatedly, from one direction to another 'hurtled' :- To move forward rapidly with no control over your momentum
6.	Because he didn't want the girls to know that he had seen them first. This suggests that it was important for him not to look too interested or happy to see them.
7.	They didn't have to say anything to each other because this is a routine that are used to doing. I know this because after they look at each other, they only have two options to choose from, to tease or to be nice. This tells me that their behaviour is habitual.
8.	• As there are two of them, the girls have strength in numbers. • They are twins so they can confuse him as to who is who.
9.	Because she is attracted to Colin and she wants him to notice her, and also to be able to identify her as Madeleine, not Grace.

10.	playfully, and with light-footed precision.
11.	They do this so that people can distinguish one twin from the other.
12.	'Close' and 'Mischievous'
13.	The writer says this because Madeleine gave Colin the opportunity to catch her, which suggests that the chase after this event could have been avoided if Colin had have taken the opportunity to catch her when it arose.
14.	Colin was both shocked and terrified because he was aware of the danger that one of the girls was in. He was particularly frightened because he didn't know which twin had fallen in and Grace couldn't swim which would mean that she would likely drown.
